

CANADIAN CONFERENCE ON
ELDER LAW

“Advocacy and Aging: From Storytelling to Systemic Change”

November 16 – 17, 2012
Vancouver, BC, Canada

GREGORY K. STEELE, Q.C. PRIZE
Awarded to an Outstanding Student Paper In Elder Law

The Canadian Centre for Elder Law is pleased to announce its Student Paper Award in Elder Law. The CCEL is committed to promoting student work in areas of study that consider legal issues affecting older people. Papers may be submitted in English or French.

The prize includes:

- A $500 CAD honourarium
- Guaranteed Conference presentation of the accepted paper
- Conference registration
- Presentation of an award at the Dinner Address
- A travel subsidy of up to $500.

The Student Paper Award will be presented at the Gala Dinner at the 2012 Canadian Conference on Elder Law.

Submissions should be made electronically in Word format with an abstract / executive summary in English. Papers should be of Journal length, (approximately 15 – 40 pages double-spaced) in Word format in 12-point font. Final texts are due by September 30, 2012.

Greg Steele, Q.C is an emeritus board member of the British Columbia Law Institute, the parent body of the Canadian Centre for Elder Law. Mr. Steele was one of the founding members of the board of directors and participated in the BCLI’s first legal project focussed on aging issues, undertaken in 1999 – an exploration that that eventually culminated in the creation of the CCEL in 2003.

For more information on the prize or the CCEL email ccels@bcli.org or see the CCEL website at www.bcli.org/ccel. Please feel free to print off posters or contact us directly to order hardcopy posters for your school or organization.
