for immediate release

Vancouver – 21 September 2016. The British Columbia Law Institute (BCLI) is pleased to announce that the Ministry of Justice has re-appointed Rosario (Tino) Di Bella to our Board of Directors.

Mr Di Bella practices law in Victoria with Jawl Bundon LLP. He brings expertise in law and aging, personal planning, land use, finance, and governance. He has served on the Board for the past eight years.

Mr Di Bella has served as the Board's Treasurer, Vice-Chair, Chair and Past-Chair. Mr Di Bella has also sat on the Audit, Finance, and Risk Committee. He now sits on the Strategic Planning Committee, the Nominating Committee and the Executive Committee. Mr Di Bella participated in three BCLI projects: the Estate Administration subcommittee, the Probate Rules Reform Project Committee, and the Common Law Tests of Capacity Project Committee.

Mr Di Bella has been an active supporter of BCLI and instrumental to our initiatives. He brings valuable knowledge and experience from his practice to the Board and the committees.

We welcome Mr Di Bella's continued involvement with BCLI and look forward to his future guidance and support.

"Mr Di Bella brings with him a wealth of knowledge to help shape the future of the British Columbia Law Institute. His commitment over the years has been key to many of our successes and his insights will continue to guide our work," says Lisa A. Peters, Chair of the Board.

BCLI strives to be a leader in law reform by carrying out the best in scholarly law reform research and writing and the best in outreach relating to law reform.
