Vancouver, 27 November 2013—The British Columbia Law Institute has formed a new project committee to assist it in carrying out its Strata Property Law—Phase Two Project. “This project committee brings together a diverse range of experts in the strata-property field,” commented committee chair Patrick Williams, “to tackle some of the most pressing issues in strata-property law in British Columbia.”

The members of the project committee are:

Patrick Williams—Chair
Clark Wilson LLP

Garth Cambrey
Cambrey Consulting Ltd.

Tim Jowett
BC Land Title and Survey Authority

Elaine McCormack
Alexander Holburn Beaudin Lang LLP

David Parkin
City of Vancouver

Stanley Rule
Sabey Rule LLP

Larry Buttress
Real Estate Council of British Columbia

Tony Gioventu
Condominium Home Owners Association

Judith Matheson
Coldwell Banker Premier Realty

Doug Page
BC Ministry Responsible for Housing

Allen Regan
Bayside Property Services Ltd.

Ed Wilson
Lawson Lundell LLP

The committee will begin its work by examining the dissolution and winding up of stratas. From there, it will move on to consider other fundamental changes to stratas, and then selected issues relating to mixed-use and other complex stratas, leasehold stratas, common property, governance, insurance, and land titles.

The Strata Property Law—Phase Two Project is made possible by project funding from the Real Estate Foundation of BC, the Notary Foundation of BC, the BC Ministry Responsible for Housing, Strata Property Agents of BC, the Real Estate Council of BC, the Real Estate Institute of BC, the Association of BC Land Surveyors, and the Vancouver Island Strata Owners Association.

Backgrounders summarizing the issues taken up in the project and providing short biographies of committee members are available at www.bcli.org.

The British Columbia Law Institute strives to be a leader in law reform by carrying out the best in scholarly law reform research and writing and the best in outreach relating to law reform.
